

MARCH 11TH FAMILY NEWSLETTER

It's been a great third quarter!

We are excited for parent teacher conferences this week!

As a reminder we will have early dismissal with school ending at 1:30 on Thursday, March 12th and Friday, March 13th. Conferences will take place from 2-6pm. Please be sure to sign up via the link posted in each grade level's Class Dojo page.

Attendance Announcements:

We are super excited to be hosting a March AttenDance for students who have no more than two tardies or 1 absence! Students of all grades who meet the requirement for the month of March will be invited to attend during the first week of April!

March Character Focus:

Our leadership character focus this month is patience!

TLS Career Week:

We are so excited to host Career Week when we return from Spring Break! During the week of March 23rd-27th, guest speakers will be coming each morning to educate our classes on their career. Signed up to participate we have:
